PHILADELPHIA DEFEATS BROOKLYN-SOME GOOD AMATEUR GAMES.

GAMES YESTERDAY. New-Yerk 18, Washington 6. Cleveland 6, Ch cago 5. Philadelphia 4, Brooklyn 2. Battimore 16, Boston 12. Cincinnati 3, St. Louis 1. Louisville, rain.

While the weather continues to be decidedly against ball and other outdoor sports, large crowds witsed the green diamond buttles at the Polo Grounds and at Eastern Park yesterday. There were 6.000 persons at the former and over 4,000 at the Brooklyn tounds, the first to witness an emphatic victory f the Giants and the second to see in sorrow the fall was a rather raw wind at the Polo Grounds sterday, but the sun did its best to escape cloudanks, and the spectators in heavy wraps did not The game was between the New-York and Washington teams, and the Giants were determined get revenge for those defeats at Washington. Yorkers simply toyed with their rivals and won they pleased. Duryea's curves were batted so he quit in the fifth inring, and Esper, a left-handed pitcher, took his place. The man with "south paw" fared little better. Sullivan retired disgrace after the sixth inning, Stricker taking

Rusle pitched for six innings and as the Senators had been routed, he retired to give young Donohue The Giants never played a better all around game, their batting, fielding and base-running being remarkable. Foreman, the pitcher, will have a trial in the New-York Club. The others and sallors of the men-of-war in the harbor will attend Tuesday's game at the Pole Grounds on the invitation of the New-York Club. Many of the jolly tars were present

The Giants opened the game with two runs and took the lead. Burke started off with a hit to left field, and then made a clever steal to second. Tiernan reached first on a fumble by Sullivan. Ward sacrificed and Burke scored, while Tiernan scored on Countr's long fly to O'Rourke.

In the second half of the inning the men from Washington also made a run. Radford was struck in the side with a pitched ball, and he limped to first. Hoy, the mute, sacrificed him to second, and O'Rourke's hit put him on third. He scored on a second inning the New-Yorkers increased their lead with two more runs, making their advantage 4 to 1. Lyons bunted the ball and beat the throw to first. Rusie got a "life" on a muff by Duryea. Lyons and Rusie both scored on a muff at the plate by Farrell

The Giants gauged Duryea's curves in the third inning and they batted home three more runs, making their lead a substantial one. Ward made a hit, took second on a fumble by Hoy and third on a wild pitch, and he scored on Davis's hit to centre field. Fuller also hit safely, and then he and Davis each stole a base. Both scored on Doyle's three-base hit to left centre.

The New-Yorkers scored three more runs in the fourth inning on a base on balls, two base hits by Ward and Davis and a three-base hit by Fuller. Esper was then put in to pitch, but it made no difference, for the Giants scored four more rans, making their lead 14 to 1. The runs were made on hits by Tiernan and Ward, a "hit by pitcher" and a home run drive by Conner.

The men from the Capital City had made but one hit in the first six innings, but in the seventh they got we more and scored two runs. O'Rourke made a bit, and he and Wise scored on the latter's home-run

The Glants got two more runs in the seventh and an equal number in the eighth, three of the four being earned; Donohue went in to pitch in the seventh inning, as Ward wished to give the youngster a trial. finely for two innings, but in the ninth the Washingtons scored three runs on a hit by pitcher, a home-run by Larkin. The baseball season of the Orange Athletic Club opened yesterday afternoon on the Orange Oval. The day was cool, but there was a large attendance. The Columbia College nine crossed bats with the home team, and a bright game was played. It was marked by few errors of Columbia. Gilroy pitched a fine game, puzzling the visitors with his alternate speedy curves and slow drops. Hildretn made a superbrunning fly catch. The score:
